Parties take no step.

On calls neither the parties nor their ld. Advocate appears.

It is 12:30 p.m. now.

The workman did not appear despite due service of notice.

The company initially appeared but did not file any written statement and now they are not appearing.

No cause is shown by the parties as directed.

The reference was received by this Tribunal from the Govt. to adjudicate the issue regarding refusal of service by the company to the workman as enumerated therein.

Considering the facts and circumstances, nature of the case, coupled with the conduct of the parties, it appears that the parties are no longer interested to proceed with this case leading this Tribunal to presume that the dispute between the parties no longer exists.

Thus, the instant reference is disposed of under Rule 22 of the W.B.I.D. Rules, 1958 on the footing that there no longer exists any industrial dispute.
